Audience Demographics and Event Details
“Rights Matter” - Protecting and respecting the rights of older people is central to creating an environment that enables people to do what they value while addressing inequalities; strengthening age-friendly environments; combating ageism, and optimizing functional ability.

The IFA’s 15th Global Conference on Ageing responds to the intersection of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the priorities of the WHO Global Strategy and Action Plan.

Niagara Falls will host this international event at the Hilton Hotel and Suites Niagara Falls / Fallsview Casino Resort in Niagara Falls, Ontario on 1-3 November 2020. The IFA is proud to be supported by an international network of partners and is committed to creating an environment that enables older people to do what they value through a deeper evidence-based understanding. The conference will feature prominent experts presenting and discussing critical issues within the field of ageing.

The International Federation on Ageing (IFA) is an international non-governmental organization (NGO) with a membership base comprising government, NGOs, industry, academia, and individuals in over 70 countries. The IFA has general consultative status at the United Nations (UN) and its agencies and is in formal relations with the World Health Organization (WHO). It is a registered charity in Canada, with an international and democratically elected Board of directors.
Keynote Speakers

Ms Alana Officer
Unit Head, Demographic Change and Healthy Ageing, Department of Social Determinants of Health, World Health Organization

As a global thought leader, Ms Officer’s intellectual rigour, authenticity and inspiration stand apart from the best, as does her commitment and dedication to the field of healthy ageing. The IFA is thrilled that her powerful voice will be present at the conference to combat outdated stereotypes and misconceptions and bring a knowledgeable, evidence-based perspective on how to bring about positive change.

Mr Michael Tamblyn
CEO, Rakuten KOBO

Mr Tamblyn is proud to lead the first digital revolution that isn’t being driven by 18-25 year old’s, but instead being powered by women 50 years and older who love reading. As President and CEO of one of the world’s fastest growing eReading services, Rakuten Kobo has a mission “to empower booklovers to read more.” As part of that mission, Rakuten Kobo wants to make sure that all people can keep reading throughout their entire lives, from first words to final chapter.

Mr Spencer West
Visionary, Activist, Best Selling Author

Whether addressing corporate leaders, non-profits or the world of education, Mr West’s charisma and dynamism captivates all audiences. Sharing his journey from losing both legs at the age of five to climbing—and summiting—Mount Kilimanjaro using his hands and wheelchair, Mr West will inspire listeners to tackle their own obstacles and redefine possible.
(1) Vision Health
Innovation and Optimism 2020

The primary goal of the Presidential Symposium on Vision Health is to raise the profile of the critical importance of current and future trends in vision health through key themed presentations and a moderated discussion with thought leaders in advocacy, diabetes, retinal diseases and ageing. Visual impairments can limit mobility, impact interpersonal interactions, trigger depression, become a barrier to accessing information and social media, increase the risk of falls and accidents, and make driving hazardous. Vision loss is not an ‘ageing issue’ yet among adult at-risk populations there is a relatively low-level awareness of the need for regular eye screening, symptomatology of eye diseases and safe and effective treatment options as well as future innovations. There is a critical need for improved care pathways to embrace optimise the patient outcomes from both a vision and functional perspective.
(2) Brain Health

“The Treatment for Dementia is Prevention”

The Global Conference is an international platform through which ‘game changing conversations’ about current and future trends in the field of cognitive reserve and brain health, technological innovations, and advocacy efforts will impact not only individual lives but also family and ultimately the productivity of nations. The Presidential Symposium on Brain Health brings together thought leaders and experts in the fields of neuroscience, cognitive reserve and ageing to present and debate the evidence on the concept that “the treatment for dementia is prevention”. The session comprises presentations followed by a moderated armchair discussion which may include participation with the audience via questions and answers. The symposium will be professionally recorded, with the finalized video product available as a tool on global website and for ongoing material to help influence and shape policy.

(3) Vaccination

The Presidential Symposium on Vaccination will facilitate learning and to promote dialogue on the importance of equitable immunization program strategies, and critical actions in addressing system-based barriers to adult immunization. Vaccination throughout life is a key pillar of expanded prevention strategies that can save millions of lives and is a central component of universal health coverage. The collective voice and actions of public health professional, patient and advocacy organizations at and beyond the conference is required to ensure existing vaccine uptake targets are met and we strive for parity of such targets across the life course. One of the single most important barriers to fulfilling this mandate is the lack of a joined-up approach and mechanism to mobilize information, experts and activists around a common agenda across disciplines and sectors. This conference acts as a bridge across disciplines and sectors with attention to patient and advocacy organizations.
Age-friendly Global Village

The WHO Global Network for Age-friendly Cities and Communities (GNAFCC) was established in 2010 to connect cities, communities and organizations worldwide with the common vision of making their community a great place to grow old in. As a response to global population ageing and rapid urbanisation, the Network focuses on action at the local level that fosters the full participation of older people in community life and promotes healthy and active ageing.

The Network is one of the fastest growing program of Age-friendly activity in the world with over 1,000 members from more than 40 countries. The unprecedented growth seen since its inception signifies the sustained interest and commitment of cities, communities and nations in ensuring the rights, functional ability, and autonomy of older people remain central and prioritized alongside shifting demographics.

The IFA is proud to serve both as an affiliate and network administrator to the WHO Global Network of Age-friendly Cities and Communities and is pleased to offer the Age-friendly Global Village as a unique platform to showcase the innovative and inspiring work by and with older people to create enabling environments.
